Report description:

Following strong retail volume growth in the previous year, retail volume sales of dishwashers are set to decline in 2022, as many consumers have not sought to purchase a dishwasher after already upgrading during the pandemic. For those consumers who did not recently purchase, the inflationary environment and general economic uncertainty have led some of them to postpone making a major purchase. Consumers in the premium space have partially offset the general decline in consumer demand, as many...
