Report description:

In terms of volume sales eggs fluctuated wildly during the pandemic, and in 2022 has returned to pre-pandemic trends of low positive growth in retail while rises in foodservice sales remain high as horeca continues to recover. The egg continues to be one of the most persistent members of the Spanish shopping basket, with 2022 levels of at-home consumption higher than they were before the outbreak of COVID-19. Spanish consumers maintain strong confidence in the egg as being one of the basic nutri...
