Report description:

The impact of inflation resulting from supply and sourcing issues caused by global crises has not deterred total volume sales of fruit, and growth is set to remain strong in 2022. Pandemic-induced restrictions have been removed, and this has revived demand across all channels, as schools and offices have now returned to normal operations. Dubai Expo offered the opportunity to revitalise the foodservice channel by catering to tourists from the latter part of 2021 and into 2022, and growth has per...
