Report description:

Restrictions related to the COVID-19 pandemic were lifted in Algeria in 2022 and consumers returned to their previous consumption patterns of hot drinks. All categories are therefore set to see positive, if slower, retail volume sales growth in 2022 compared with previous years. This is attributable to the severe drop in disposable incomes, driven by the ongoing economic hardship in the country, which is leading to an increasing shift towards local economy brands. Significant downtrading is bein...
