Report description:

After having posted a decline in 2021, hot drinks in Egypt is poised to record healthy growth in overall retail volume sales in 2022. This turnaround is partly a reflection of the normalisation of consumption patterns as pandemic-related disruption continues to subside, meaning the contraction the previous year was largely due to people returning to the office and having a renewed appetite for socialising outside the home following the easing of restrictions that had been imposed to curb the spr...
