Report description:

Juices have benefitted from a resurgence in tourism although volume sales in the on-trade still remain well below pre-pandemic levels in 2022. Unit price increases have affected many products which has dampened consumption in the on-trade significantly. The off-trade has fared much better where retail volume sales of juices improved year-on-year. Larger manufacturers have been in a position to better absorb the impact of price rises and avoid passing increasing costs directly on to final consume...
