Report description:

Meat saw steady growth in retail volume terms in 2022, although the performances of the categories were varied, with this being dictated by various factors. In 2022 meat producers were hit by inflationary pressures as the cost of essential raw materials such as grain and fuel rose sharply, in large part due to the impact of Russia's invasion of Ukraine. For example, these countries account for a third of the world's supply of grain and therefore with the war disrupting the supply chain this put...
