Report description:

The easing of lockdown restrictions in 2021 switched the consumption of meat back from retail to the foodservice and institutional channels to a great extent. Beef and veal recorded the strongest decline in retail volume sales in 2021, driven by the reduced number of BBQ occasions at home, while retail volume sales of lamb, mutton and goat experienced a more moderate decline, as Easter demand improved compared with 2020. While sales through the retail channel declined, foodservice and institutio...
