Report description:

2022 has been the first year since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic with no restrictions implemented on mobility and social gatherings. The return of consumers to busier lifestyles since the middle of 2021, with offices, schools and, significantly, foodservice outlets reopening in full in the UK, has led to a new normal. Indeed, in 2022 hybrid working patterns have consolidated, with working from home remaining a routine for many British consumers. As a result, retail volume sales of nuts, on...
