Report description:

Sales of pulses in foodservice, which were drastically negatively affected during the pandemic, saw a revival towards the last quarter of 2021. This was led by the influx of tourism, that coincided with the launch of Dubai Expo, which came alongside the significant relaxation of social curbs. Furthermore, due to the effective social restrictions that were previously in place, the pandemic was well-contained, benefiting the travel and tourism industry. Therefore, the reopening of foodservice outl...
