Report description:

RTD tea is considered a healthier option to other soft drinks and is thus drawing consumers away from carbonates and juice. Consumer demand was unaffected by the COVID-19 global pandemic and remains strong in 2022 despite rising prices pushed up by inflation. RTD tea remains a niche product and due to its higher price point, most of its consumer base are more affluent consumers with larger disposable incomes. These consumers have not been adversely affected by the rising cost of living in 2022 a...
