Report description:

Off-trade volume sales of RTD tea continue to decline in 2022. The category faces strong competition from natural mineral bottled water and 100% juice, with these products perceived to be healthier. It is also evident that Czech households are more price-sensitive in 2022 as prices have been rising across FMCGs due to inflation. As such, consumers choose their soft drinks more carefully, with this negatively impacting sales of RTD tea. RTD tea consumption is also seasonal, with consumption being...
