Report description:

In 2022, retail volume sales of coffee machines continue to grow in Israel. Since cafes and restaurants were closed during 2020 and the beginning of 2021, consumers drank more coffee at home. As consumers were limited in the amount of time they could spend outside, they focused on nurturing their time at home and investing in consumer appliances that were important for them. Therefore, many with decent disposable incomes took this opportunity to invest in a coffee machine.
