Report description:

The soft drinks category is heavily reliant on impulse consumption occasions since a large part of volume sales are made through the traditional channel in small independent grocery stores. Indeed, for the industry to perform well it depends on the flow of people through the streets of Ecuador. During the initial months of 2022, the category was impacted by a spike in COVID-19 cases as the Omicron variant impacted the country. Thereafter, restrictions were quickly reduced to a minimum and large...
