Report description:

The easing of lockdown restrictions in 2021 had a severe negative impact on retail volume sales of starchy roots. While in 2020 sales benefited from the home cooking trend and the versatile properties of starchy roots, as consumers were forced to spend most of their time at home, in 2021 the reopening of foodservice, schools and offices switched demand back from the retail channel to the foodservice and institutional channels. As a result, in contrast to the decline in retail volume sales, sales...
