Report description:

The global increase in the price of raw materials (packaging), supply issues and global inflationary pressures mean that 2022 has been a challenging year for producers of soft drinks, including bottled water. Input cost pressures, especially with the cost of PET and preforms rising significantly, have been weighing heavily on all players. However, bottled water in the United Arab Emirates continues to record solid growth in both off-trade and on-trade volume and value sales terms. The growth in...
