Report description:

When COVID-19 hit the country in 2020, it resulted in a further deterioration of the confectionery packaging performance, which had already been in decline in 2019. The pandemic led to heightened consumer interest in health and wellness, which had a negative effect on demand for confectionery. All types of confectionery were negatively impacted by the loss of on-the-go and impulse purchases for extended periods due to home seclusion and restrictions on mobility. However, in 2021, confectionery r...
