Report description:

Both retail volume and retail constant value sales (2022 prices) of dishwashers fell for the first time in almost a decade during 2022. This more than reversed the strong growth in retail constant value sales that occurred in the previous year, which was driven in large part by the pandemic. COVID-19 restrictions meant that a significant proportion of local households had excess savings. In the context of the pandemic, the deeper cleaning provided by dishwashers vis-a-vis handwashing dishes was...
