Report description:

Rises in prices have hardly been unique to edible oils in 2022, but the impact in this category has been unusually severe. This has been caused in large part by global turmoil stemming from the war in Ukraine. Ukraine is the leading global exporter of sunflower oil, and the supply disruptions caused by the war caused a wave of global uncertainty that rippled throughout all cooking oils. Indonesia's temporary decision to halt palm oil exports further complicated matters, as did a major drought in...
