Report description:

In volume terms, energy drinks is the fastest-growing category in soft drinks. Younger adult consumers mainly drive this growth and their high consumption, as many strive for energy and appreciate the fashionable image of the drinks and the added value of the products. Growth on the landscape has significantly increased following the COVID-19 pandemic, as the younger population had a lot of extra work to keep up with, following the closures and reopening of schools. As such, many turned to energ...
