Report description:

During the COVID-19 pandemic, shelf stable seafood has been seeing strong growth thanks to its long shelf life. In addition, with more consumers working and studying from home, there has been increased demand for at-home meal solutions, with seafood being used in a wide range of local dishes by Indonesians. This has been supporting the packaging unit volumes of metal food cans used in shelf stable seafood in 2020 and 2021.

Euromonitor International's Processed Meat and Seafood Packaging in Indonesia report offers insight into key trends and developments driving packaging across the category. The report also examines trends and prospect for various pack types and closures: metal packaging, rigid plastic, glass, liquid cartons, paper-based containers; flexible packaging.

Product coverage: Meat and seafood substitutes inc Tofu, Processed Meat, Processed Seafood.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
