Report description:

Even before the onset of COVID-19, the review period had seen strong growth in demand for ready meals packaging, but the pandemic added impetus to this trend in 2020. With consumers spending more time at home during the year, they ate more meals there. However, with a significant number of people working from home, not everyone had the time to regularly prepare home-made meals. This boosted demand for ready meals packaging, particularly frozen ready meals packaging and chilled ready meals packaging...

Euromonitor International's Ready Meals Packaging in Poland report offers insight into key trends and developments driving packaging across the category. The report also examines trends and prospect for various pack types and closures: metal packaging, rigid plastic, glass, liquid cartons, paper-based containers; flexible packaging.
