Report description:

RTD is registering positive growth in the off-trade in Turkey in 2022, albeit at lower rates compared to 2021. Turkish consumers consider RTD tea products to be healthier alternatives to carbonates, and parents are more willing to give them to their children. However, 2022 has seen average unit prices in RTD tea rise substantially as a result of increased production costs, thus hampering growth with many families unable to afford to purchase them, or to purchase them so frequently. Another facto...
