Report description:

Following the arrival of COVID-19 in France, local consumers were faced with lockdown and curfew restrictions for much of 2020. Combined with the closure of consumer foodservice for much of the year, this meant that consumers spent much more time at home and also prepared and consumed more of their meals at home. Furthermore, faced with the uncertainty of an unknown pandemic, consumers rushed to prepare for the months ahead, purchasing greater quantities of products with long expiration dates. S...
