Report description:

COVID-19 boosted demand for sauces, dressings and condiments packaging during 2020, as it led to consumers spending more time at home and preparing and eating more meals there. This boosted demand for a number of pack types in this category. While growth slowed in 2021, it was still above pre-pandemic levels and was also coming on top of the expanded sales base from a year earlier. Packaging unit volumes of pack types like glass jars, folding cartons, brick liquid cartons and flexible aluminium/...
