Report description:

With consumers spending more time at home than usual in 2020, they were increasingly turning to home cooking due to the various COVID-19 restrictions, including foodservice closures. The outbreak of COVID-19 also increased consumer interest in health and wellness, with many placing an increased focus on their nutritional intake and selecting quality ingredients to remain fit and robust against the threat of the virus. With the overall increase in health-awareness, consumers were more willing to...
