Report description:

Except for the abnormal growth in 2021 and decrease in 2020 caused by the pandemic, the US women's underwear market is relatively stable in market size. By contrast, there have been considerable fluctuations in market shares mainly caused by Victoria's Secret's unstable performance, changes in consumers' purchase patterns as well as the emergence of new players. This briefing discusses the recent trends in the US women's underwear market and demonstrates the key drivers of underwear brands' succ...
