Report description:

The landscape is growing in retail volume as consumers pay more attention to staying healthy. After two years of COVID-19 restrictions, many are now focused on being active while being more educated on the benefits that sports drinks offer, before or after physical activity. However, while awareness is growing, it still remains limited. Some consumers reach for sports drinks looking for quick and easy ways of staying healthy, often misplacing the functions of sports drinks as they look for trendy...
