Report description:

In 2020, sweet spreads saw a dramatic surge in its unit volume growth rate. This was primarily due to the lifestyle changes associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, which saw consumers spending a lot of time in home seclusion in 2020. With consumers looking for easy options for sweet snacks that they could enjoy at home, in the absence of consumer foodservice options that they would ordinarily have encountered in their day to day lives, sweet spreads benefited considerably from this, with all cate...
