Report description:

KEY FINDINGS

The United Kingdom ATV and UTV market is projected to record a 6.42% CAGR during the estimated period of 2023-2030. The popularity and utility of quad bikes, customization trends in vehicles, and various applications of UTVs in cruisers drive market growth in the country.

MARKET INSIGHTS

In the United Kingdom, the surging demand for touring, farming, and sports activities has significantly encouraged multinational manufacturers to launch numerous UTVs and ATVs. Besides, touring quad bikes that use ATVs & UTVs have many applications as cruiser motorcycles used for adventure sports activities or rocky city touring. Therefore, the increasing number of applications of quad bikes is expected to stimulate the ATV and UTV market's growth across the nation in the next few years.

Furthermore, the United Kingdom ATV and UTV market is witnessing a number of customization trends in vehicles which are significantly boosted by increasing consumer demand. Also, modern advanced vehicle capabilities such as hydrostatic transmissions as well as disc brakes have massively raised consumer interest in these vehicles, which is expected to boost market growth during the forecast period.
