Report description:

There was a strong rebound in the packaging unit volumes used for alcoholic drinks through the on-trade in 2021, with the off-trade also continuing to record positive, if slightly slower, growth in this year. This followed a year in which COVID-19 restrictions resulted in a slump in on-trade sales in 2020, due to the extended closure of establishments in this channel. The effect of this was exacerbated by a collapse in the tourism industry due to the travel restrictions in place. People were the...
