Report description:

COVID-19 had a major impact on sales of alcoholic drinks in Thailand in 2020, with on-trade consumption plummeting as establishments in this channel were closed for extended periods. The closure of borders also hampered the on-trade performance, as this brought an end to tourist arrivals, a consumer group that tends to have high consumption levels in the on-trade channel in Thailand. Although the off-trade channel gained some of the sales that would have been made in the on-trade in 2020, it als...
