Report description:

While cheese is seen as a fairly essential foodstuff in Denmark, especially hard cheese, cheese is also widely regarded as an indulgent product and even something of a delicacy. For this reason, consumers are often prepared to pay more for their favourite brand and/or a particular type of premium or value-added cheese. Purchasing decisions in cheese are often based primarily on taste and texture, while many consumers are looking for rare and exclusive types of cheese that meet their desire for an i...
