Report description:

Cheese has not been immune to rising inflation and saw price hikes in 2022. While it is a rather mature category, there is still room for growth in current value terms. Indulgent cheeses are attracting more Finns to try new varieties at the premium end as appreciation for higher quality and authentic cheese grows. According to the retailing giant Kesko Oyj, consumers are craving more indulgence cheeses which encouraged the private label Pirkka line to launch Punahomejuusto, a premium red cheese...
