Report description:

Drinking milk is expected to register a decline in volume sales and only a minimal increase in current value sales. The repercussions of the 2018 boycott of Danone milk due to its high prices is still being felt. Sales through informal channels is increasing and while milk production is increasing, volumes collected by treatment facilities is decreasing, as more unpasteurised milk is sold informally through dairy shops (Mahlaba) or by street vendors. As a result, though there was inflationary pr...
