Report description:

Players in jeans have reasons to be happy, as the category bounces back to strength thanks to the ongoing casual clothing trends. Indeed, the depressed economic climate still plays a part, with many consumers exhibiting price-sensitivity, although jeans in general are an affordable garment and also available across a number of different price points (with an average being EUR34 for women and EUR23 for men), along with being practical and seen as eternally stylish. On the subject of which, the "sn...
