Report description:

In 2022, jeans have become close to fully recovering to 2019 levels, with the reopening of stores and society contributing to sales growth. However, sales were somewhat dampened as measures against COVID-19 were only fully lifted in May 2022. This was past the winter season, with summer weather unfavourable for sales of jeans, resulting in low purchases. This was especially the case for men's jeans, leading women's jeans to post stronger growth in volume terms compared to men's. As such, Septemb...
