Report description:

Following the lift of lockdown measures in the first quarter of 2021, many consumers resumed their pre-pandemic lifestyles and started buying jeans again, leading to robust retail value sales growth during the year. The trend continued in 2022, bolstered by stricter working from home policies, bringing more employees back into the office. This has pushed growth in the jeans category since jeans are considered a basic piece of clothing and form part of many Israelis' wardrobes. While there were n...
