Report description:

Sales of jeans continued to see healthy growth in current value terms in 2022. Compared to more formal types of clothing, such as suits, demand was less affected by the COVID-19 pandemic, due to the popularisation of hybrid working arrangements, which led to the casualisation of dress codes. Premium jeans remained the largest subcategory in terms of value, having continued to benefit from the presence of many established brands, including the iconic Levi's with its limited-edition collections.
