Report description:

With weddings cancelled or postponed in 2020 and 2021, there was a decline in the overall jewellery industry, with purchases of wedding rings and jewellery to wear on the day itself on hold. However, in 2022, weddings are taking place once more, and this is naturally driving the demand for jewellery.

Euromonitor International's Jewellery in Taiwan report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data (2017-2021), allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts to 2026 illustrate how the market is set to change.

Product coverage: Costume Jewellery, Fine Jewellery.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
