Report description:

COVID-19 has been under better control in 2022, and the government has cancelled the related restrictions, with imports and exports returning to normal. Therefore, the supply of imported nuts has resumed. For domestic nuts such as cashews and peanuts (groundnuts), the regions across the country are well-connected, which has maintained the availability of supplies. Distribution channels have also operated normally in 2022. Retail channels returned to normal operations immediately after the regula...
