Report description:

Demand for personal accessories was declining in South Africa prior to the pandemic, although 2020 witnessed the strongest drop in volume sales due to store closures as part of measures to control the spread of COVID-19. During this time, only stores deemed to be essential, such as grocery retailers, were permitted to open, particularly impacting non-grocery specialists. Since the reopening of non-essential stores, volume sales of personal accessories have started to gradually improve in terms o...
