Report description:

Having closed its borders to the world in 2020, with the occasional exception of Australia, New Zealand has opened up again in 2022, taking a gradual and cautious approach. However, being a long-haul destination during rising airfares has challenged recovery, particularly given that several major source markets, and groups of visitors, including international students, have yet to return to the country.

Euromonitor International's Travel in New Zealand report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest market size data 2017-2021, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new legislative, technology or pricing issues. Background information on disposable income, annual leave and holiday taking habits is also included. Forecasts to 2026 illustrate how the market is set to change.

Product coverage: Booking, Car Rental (Destination), In-Destination Spending, Lodging (Destination), Tourism Flows, Travel Modes.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
