The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

Key Highlights

- The apparel retail market includes baby clothing, toddler clothing and casual wear, essentials, formalwear, formalwear-occasion, and outerwear for men, women, boys and girls; excludes sports-specific clothing. All market data and forecasts are represented as a consumer expenditure in retailers which includes sales taxes (e.g. VAT) and figures presented are in nominal terms (i.e., without adjustment for inflation) and all currency conversions used in the creation of this report have been calculated using constant 2021 annual average exchange rates.
- The Czech apparel retail industry had total revenues of $2.8 billion in 2021, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 0.6% between 2017 and 2021.
- Clothing, footwear, and accessories specialists account for the largest proportion of sales in the Czech apparel retail industry in 2021, sales through this channel generated $1.5 billion, equivalent to 52% of the industry's overall value.
- In 2021, the unemployment rate steadily increased to 2.8% owing to the recessionary impact of COVID-19 pandemic. This is largely due the closure of various businesses and industries. As a result, many consumers have suffered a loss of income, which has limited spending on non-essential items, such as the latest fashions.
