Report description:

Dermatologicals has enjoyed dynamic current value growth across the category in 2022 following a solid performance over the review period. Increasing value sales have, on the one hand, been influenced by rising unit prices and, on the other, by the specifics of dermatologicals and relatively healthy demand for such products. For example, hair loss treatments (which has continued to attract an increasing number of new consumers), medicated shampoos, and cold sore treatments (with problems such as...
