Report description:

Dietary supplements recorded strong retail current value sales growth in 2022, as consumers continued to opt for prevention over cure and self-management of their health. Their main aims were to strengthen their immune system and improve general wellbeing. In addition, consumers expanded their search for dietary supplements to support more than simply the immune system and general health. In this vein, they looked for anti-ageing properties and products with beauty, eye health, brain and urinary...
