Report description:

Despite the easing of the impact of the pandemic, 2022 has brought more problems for consumers and producers alike, with further instability and uncertainty. The impact of COVID-19 on the global supply chain has continued, leading logistics costs to remain high. In addition, the Russian invasion of Ukraine exacerbated this issue, hindering the supply chain. The invasion drove the Australian government to implement sanctions against Russia. Inevitably, the lack of exports of primary commodities f...
