Report description:

Packaging unit volumes of glass jars used in air care recorded continued growth in 2021 as consumers continued to stay indoors and work from home. Although, in 2021, the health threat posed by the COVID-19 pandemic was seen as being reduced, many companies continued to operate remote working. As a result, consumers spent a lot of time indoors and purchased air care products such as sprays, candles, diffusers and plug-ins to maintain an ambient and soothing atmosphere inside their homes. This par...
