Report description:

Students and working professionals are the heaviest users of hosiery in Thailand. All school pupils and many university students must adhere to strict dress codes and this requires plainly patterned hosiery in white or brown to match with their uniforms. Parents normally need to purchase new hosiery for their children at the start of every new semester. As such, the closure of educational facilities for much of 2021 to control the spread of COVID-19 had a significant impact on sales of hosiery,...
