Report description:

In 2022, hot drinks manufacturers' ability to deliver in the Nigerian market was still being affected by the negative impact of the COVID-19 crisis. The devaluation of the local currency and rising inflation, which led to high unit prices, saw manufacturers reducing the pack sizes of several of their key brands in order to sustain growth. Despite the challenges faced, hot drinks saw growth in 2022 and is expected to continue to see good growth over the forecast period, spurred by marketing and a...
